
Never go there!

Posted by kate - 2009/09/09 12:31

Hi,

I just want to tell the girls who want a yuko straightening never to go to Fiz makeup. My experience there was a nightmare (40 pounds more than the asked price at the end of the treatment, no hair washing, eyes burned with the product...)

And today my hairs are burned and curlier than before, I had to cut them very short.

So I can only recommend to find a good hairdresser, pay the price and NEVER go to fiz makeup.

FIZMAKEUP Re:Never go there!

I can confirm this. FIZ MAKEUP is the most rude salon service I have ever encountered. And she will NOT give you the straightening treatment she promises you. You are really better off going to other salons. DO NOT be tempted by the cheap price they advertise. I went for a straightening treatment, and after 2 months of her email and verbal abuse she still has not give the rework I need because she made my hair worse off, more frizzy and nowhere straight like she promised.

I'm not even sure if she has a license to operate as she makes you go to her house for the treatment and she says she is still studying at beauty school. ~~YIKES! Avoid FIZ MAKEUP at all costs!

5.0 out of 5 Just a quick note to say a massive thank you for the service I received. Appologies for taking so long to feedback but I have been out showing off my fabulous new hair! The result has been fantastic and worth every penny without a doubt.

I have already recommended you fiz to all my "curly/wavy/difficult hair" friends as they can see how much happier I am having had the treatment. It is something I have wanted for ages but have been too scared to try. you made me feel comfortable and very well attended too. It is only a shame that not all hair salons have such inviting and comfortable surroundings. My hair is wonderful and I am no longer depressed in the morning if the weather is rainy or damp as I know that my hair isn't going to become in the least bit frizzy! everyone have commented on how wonderful it is. Thank you once again and long may you all be around to help us poor curly haired women/men. Look forward to seeing you for the regrowth!

It's the first time I have the Yuko treatment at fizmakeup, even though I've had it done several times in many different saloon. I can definitely say fiz is a real expert, she talked me through the different stages of the treatment, explaining what she was doing in a very professional way. The result has been absolutely fantastic; I walked out with silky, shiny and beautiful hair. I will certainly recommend it , and I will most definitely be back!!!

Thank you for making the treatment more affordable and accessible to everybody
